

We Three Kings of Orient Are

We Three Kings of Orient Are is about the story of the Three Kings and their visit to bring gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh to the Baby Jesus. The kings arrived on the twelfth night after the birth of Jesus, and the tradition of giving gifts on the twelfth night after Christmas still continues in some countries. The words and the music were written in 1857 by John Henry Hopkins, Jr. from Pennsylvania.
